Local Brevities.

The Redondo will leave Astoria this morning for San Francisco.

A new invoice of Eastman's celebrated Kodaks and supplies received at the Owl drug store.

We have all kinds of Cheese and the best of each kind.
FOARD & STOKES CO.

Rasmus O. Salte, a native of Norway, was made a full citizen by Judge Trenchard in the county court yesterday.

The Occident tonorial parlors and bath facilities are equalled by none. Everything modern and up to date.
See Peterson.

The final account of the administrator of the estate of Niles Matson has been set for hearing on May 15 in the probate court.

We have a few Wild Blackberries left, put up in quart, and half-gallon jars. They are very nice.
FOARD & STOKES CO.

Several fishing parties have been out the past few days for trout, but report very small catches. The trout do not bite, neither will they raise to a fly.

W. J. Hess has opened the cleanest and best appointed restaurant in Astoria at 120 Eleventh street. The best the market, and the promptest service.

The steamer South Bay has been engaged to take place of the Aurella on the San Francisco and Astoria route while the Aurella is being repaired.

There will be a game of ball next Sunday on the recreation grounds between the Owapumun team and the Skamokawa team. The game will be called at 2 p. m.

Families desiring either Colonial or Shalwater bay oysters can always secure them fresh at the Imperial oyster house, which makes a specialty of supplying families or parties.

An alarm of fire was turned in yesterday at 12:30 caused by a blaze in a bath house situated on Astor street. The flames were extinguished without the assistance of the department.

Prog. A. M. Brumback of the McMinnville college is expected in Astoria Sunday and will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church. While in the city he will be the guest of Rev. L. J. Trumbull.

Cupid Clinton yesterday issued documents permitting Alovik Soderman to marry Ida Helligren, both of Astoria. License to wed was also granted Warren M. Owen of Portland and Josephine Lovell of Astoria.

August Danielson and family and S. G. Peterson will leave on April 29 for an extended visit to their old home in Sweden. Mr. Danielson's mother is still living at Oland, Sweden. He will be absent about five months.

There is a restaurant in town which makes a specialty of serving fine meals, where prompt and good service can always be relied upon. This is the California Restaurant, which has just opened under new management, and is well worth visiting.

The ladies of the Astoria public library are making great preparations for the entertainment to be given at Fisher's opera house on the evening of April 24. The program is being carefully prepared and will be profuse with many new features.

A basket social and dance will be given at Kearney's hall tomorrow night by the Swedish-Finn society of this city. The proceeds are for the benefit of Felix Carlson, who broke his arm several weeks ago and has been unable to work since that time.

The county court held a short session yesterday morning. John Frye, R. C. F. Astbury and Charles Osgood were appointed viewers to meet at the Blind Slough drawbridge on April 13 and view the road petitioned for by O. A. Borglund and others in the vicinity of Knappa.

An order has been issued by the weather bureau instructing Observer Cowling to receive from the North Head observing station a bar report every morning at 5 o'clock and display the same in the usual manner. This is done for convenience of pilots and shipping.

Julius Olsen of Deep River was brought to the hospital yesterday suffering with a broken leg. In a car runaway at Olsen Bros' logging camp the cars were ditched and in jumping off Olsen broke his leg. There were several other men on the train at the time, all of whom escaped.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Lowell at 355 Commercial street, the contracting parties being Miss Josephine Lowell and Warren M. Owens of Portland. The ceremony was performed in the presence of an number of friends. After a reception the happy couple left for Portland last evening, where they will reside.

Copies of the ordinances licensing bill posters and regulating the construction of bill boards, and the license ordinances passed at the last session of the common council, have been placed in the hands of Chief Hallock with instructions to enforce the same. He will start in today collecting the $100 liquor license from every place that sells liquors, who are not now licensed as a saloon.

The funeral of the late Samuel H. Maddock will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock from Grace church, the services being conducted by Rev. Wm. Seymour Short. The Astoria lodge, B. P. O. Elks, of which Mr. Maddock was at one time a member, will attend the funeral in a body, and will meet at their hall at 4 o'clock this afternoon. After the funeral the remains will be taken to Portland and cremated. Friends are invited to attend the funeral, but are requested not to send any flowers.

Is there a town in the state that can produce anything to beat the window display of Herman Wise's fine store? It makes one feel in Fairyland and the famous "Benjamin" make of Business, Dress and Outing Suits, is shown at its best; it is such clothing that the leading clothiers in America have built reputations on; those desiring suits of character, that will not only look well at first, but stay nice, will naturally conserve their own interests by buying their Easter outfits from Herman Wise—$10 to $30.

David Morgan died at his residence on the hill at an early hour yesterday morning aged 84 years. Mr. Morgan has resided in Astoria a number of years and was engaged in the cannery business. He had been in ill health for a number of years and his death was not unexpected. He leaves a widow and three children. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock this morning from the family residence under the auspices of the A. F. & A. M. and the interment will be at Ocean View cemetery.

The remains of the late Albin Palmberg arrived from Portland on the noon train yesterday and were taken to Pohl's undertaking parlors. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon from Pohl's undertaking parlors and the services will be conducted by Rev. A. G. E. Rydquist of the First Evangelical Lutheran church. The funeral will be under the auspices of Astoria Lodge B. P. O. Elks and the interment will be in the Elks' plot at Greenwood.

The dispatch published in yesterday's Astorian relative to the American Mercantile Association of Kansas City, closing their doors, and putting a sign on the door, "Good-bye, suckers, good-bye," was read with feelings of sorrow and pangs of remorse by a number of Astorians who had bit at the game, and some of them had bit twice. One prominent man had $500 invested. Another lost $175, and several others amounts, ranging from $50 to $200. It was a bunco game, and just the kind some of the people of Astoria delight in bucking. Cashing bogus checks and buying worthless stock, and taking chances in skin games affords considerable recreation for a few people, and not one of them has ever made a cent, still they continue to bite.

Don't be alarmed, if you have to leave for your work every morning at 6 o'clock, because the Astoria Loan office is advertising some excellent alarm clocks at 75 cents. This firm expects to use the columns of The Morning Astorian to announce some important specials every few days. The ad is not the largest in the paper, occupying only two inches, but the owners of the establishment say that they will back up with a bona fide guarantee every statement they make in their ads. That's the class of advertisers The Astoria wants for its columns, so that its readers may not be disappointed.

Chas. C. Hager, formerly of Seaside, and family left last night for Colorado, where they will in the future reside. Mr. Hager tried to secure an interest in some business in Astoria but was unsuccessful.

John A. Carlson will leave on the Berlin for Alaska, where he goes as superintendent of the Alaska Fishermen's Packing Company cannery at Nushagak.

Are You Sure

That you are getting the best potatoes the market affords. You will be, if you order a sack of our fancy

COLORADO POTATOES.

They came from the state of Colorado, near the town of Greeley, where the soil is especially adapted to potato raising. Grown several thousand feet above sea level in a sandy soil, not unduly moist, these potatoes are thin-skinned and when served at your table, have just the right flavor. They are just

DELICIOUS AND MEALY.

Why not try a sack today. The price is the same as on other potatoes—
